Takaki Akiba, Ph.D. (Engineering)

Assistant Professor
Department of Mechanical Engineering, School of Engineering, The University of Tokyo akiba@mesl.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp · Website

7-3-1 Hongo, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 1138656, Japan

Research Interests

- Quantum computing for reacting flow problems
- Combustion limits and flame dynamics near the fuel-lean limit

Appointments

- Apr. 2024 - Present - Assistant Professor, Department of Mechanical Engineering, The University of Tokyo

Education

- Mar. 2024 - Ph.D. (Engineering), Graduate School of Engineering, Tohoku University, Japan
- Dec. 2022 - Sep. 2023 - Visiting Student Research Collaborator, Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, Princeton University, USA
- Mar. 2020 - M.Eng., Graduate School of Engineering, Tohoku University, Japan
- Mar. 2018 - B.Eng., School of Engineering, Tohoku University, Japan

Fellowships

- Apr. 2021 - Sep. 2023 - JSPS Research Fellowship for Young Scientists (DC2)
- Apr. 2020 - Mar. 2023 - Amano Institute of Technology Scholarship

Awards

- Aug. 2026 - Best Poster Award, 18th International Heat Transfer Conference
- Oct. 2025 - Young Researcher Presentation Award, Thermal Engineering Division, Japan Society of Mechanical Engineers
- Jul. 2025 - Exploratory Research Award, 2025 JHPCN Symposium
- Mar. 2024 - Dean's Award, Graduate School of Engineering, Tohoku University
- Mar. 2018 - Hatakeyama Award, Japan Society of Mechanical Engineers
